

TESTIMONIALS

What people are saying about Lisa Marie Miree

"Lisa's platform on abstinence is one to be proud of. Her commitment in promoting the importance of abstinence nationwide is a value that should be shared by all teens and young adults."

-----Marion Crecco, New Jersey Assemblywoman

"Miss Lisa's message really went to heart. A lot of teenagers as well as grown-ups needed that talk she gave us. She is a great inspiration and role model to me and many others. Also, I loved the poems she wrote and shared with us. They will touch many hearts."

-----Arkansas High School student

"Lisa Miree's presentation to our area junior and senior high schools was a timely, powerful, and challenging message that was delivered with energy and honesty. She is able to relate to all ages, races and cultures with her sparkling personality, exceptional communication skills and deep convictions. She is an inspirational role model who captivates the hearts and minds of students and adults with her original poetry and life changing message."

-----Karen Andrea, New Hope Center Sprans Grant Director

"I thank Lisa for her willingness to promote AIDS awareness and education as part of her platform. Her voice and talent can help empower youth to make responsible choices while living in a world of AIDS."

-----Kathleen Cravero, Deputy Executive Director UNAIDS

"Lisa's presentation was informative, well received and a true learning experience. Her contribution did much to enhance the State Homeless Education Conference."

---Thomas Dannis, Homeless Education For Children & Youth

"Our students learned valuable lessons that every aspect of Miss Miree's program was geared to convey. It was teaching at its best."

-----*Dr. William Martin,
Principal*

"I want to congratulate Lisa on the many accomplishments of her young life, and especially for the platform she has represented on the path to being crowned Miss Black U.S.A."

BIO

As Miss Black USA, Lisa Marie Miree was the first national titleholder to win a pageant with an abstinence until marriage platform. A Cincinnati native, she is also the reigning Miss Ohio United States. Lisa is a graduate of Ohio University with a degree in journalism, a minor in Spanish, and a Masters of Arts in International Affairs with a major in communication and development. After completing her graduate studies, she went to Costa Rica to work with the United Nations on a social marketing campaign. Lisa is a former television news reporter for ABC who left that field due to her desire to positively impact youth. Lisa has traveled the country speaking to thousands of teens on character education. She has been a guest on various TV shows such as ABC's Politically Incorrect, Celebrity Weakest Link, Focus on the Family, and Street Smarts to name a few. She has lobbied on Capitol Hill for abstinence funding, and delivered the message to U.S. military. Having studied voice, piano, dance, and theatre, many doors have opened for Lisa in the field of entertainment. She has toured with an off-Broadway play, starred in TV commercials, and print advertisements, and sung the national anthem at NFL games.

With the ability to sing, dance, write poetry, act and speak effectively, Lisa is inspiring people across the nation. She uses her talents to provide a most entertaining and convincing presentation. She calls it "Edutainment." Due to her diverse background, Lisa speaks on a variety of topics that include the following:

- Abstinence
- Self-esteem
- Character
- Relationships
- Education
- Communication
- Substance abuse
- Leadership
- International Affairs
- Development
- Goal-Setting
- Diversity
- Spirituality
- Spoken Word (poetry)

Lisa also conducts training seminars on abstinence curriculum and the sexualized culture.
